

Porton Pharma Solutions Ltd.

EHS Management Commitment

- Comply with relevant national and local laws, regulations, and standards related to EHS.
Comply with relevant international conventions and laws.
- Provide adequate support with human, material and financial resources to ensure continuous improvement of EHS performance and the realization of the company's EHS goals.
- Take effective measures to avoid, prevent or minimize the impact on the environment in all business activities.
- Strive to explore and adopt more scientific, advanced or effective EHS management methods and engineering measures, to provide a healthy and safe working environment to our staff and stakeholders.
- Carry out hazard identification and risk assessments on all products and job activities. Develop effective control measures to minimize all risks. Ensure a safe working environment for all employees.
- Strengthen EHS education and training to enhance all staff member's EHS awareness, improve the EHS competence of staff.
- Good EHS performance is one of critical factors on selecting contractors, supplies, vendors or partners.
- Conduct internal audit and management review, to realize continuous improvement of EHS performance.

- Maintain continuous and open communication with all important stakeholders (employees, external relations, shareholders etc.) about the company's environment, health and safety strategy and performance.